

Don Williams Listen to the Radio For You March, 1982

Listen to the Radio was released on MCA Records on March 25, 1982, making it the twelfth solo studio album by Don Williams. While the title track reached number three on the U.S. Country charts, “If Hollywood Don’t Need You (Hone I Still Do), “ penned by Bob McDill, was released as the third single from the album and quickly shot to number one. Williams thirteenth number one single spent a total of twelve weeks on the charts, and was recently covered by Bon Iver, a testament to the staying power of Don Williams. Additionally, “Mistakes” peaked at number three on the U.S. country charts, making Listen to the Radio another album in a succession of commercially and artistically successful albums released by Don Williams.
