

Don Williams Yellow Moon March, 1983

Released on MCA Records on March 25, 1983, Yellow Moon is characterized by a beautiful ambiance throughout the album. The album's highlights include, "Stay Young," written by Benny Gallagher and Graham Lyle, which became Don Williams' fifteenth number one hit, spending a total of twelve weeks on the charts, and "Nobody But You," written by J.D. Martin and John Jarrad, which reached number two on the U.S. charts and number one on the RPM Country Tracks chart in Canada. Yellow Moon was the first album to picture Don Williams with a beard on the cover.
