

Don Williams One Good Well April, 1989

*After a short stint and two albums with Capital Records, Don Williams released One Good Well on RCA Records on April 28, 1989. Considered one of Williams' best recordings, due to its intimate and restrained quality, "I've Been Loved By the Best," and "Just As Long As I Have You" were the biggest singles along with the title track, all charting at number four. Although it did not chart, it is worth mentioning that the Don Williams penned, "Cryin' Eyes" is one of the most eloquent of the album's offerings, pairing the singer with Mark O'Conner's fiddle, as is Beth Nielsen Chapman's "Maybe That's All it Takes." One Good Well marked the last Don Williams album produced on vinyl, a sign of the changing times, until a resurgence in interest in vinyl in the 2000's.*

Don Williams One Good Well April, 1989

Song Title: Learn to Let Go

Album Title: One Good Well

Release Date: April, 1989

Producer: Garth Fundis/Don Williams

Songwriters: 1. Mike Reid/Rory Bourke 2. Mike Reid/Kent Robbins

Song Title: Cryin' Eyes

Album Title: One Good Well

Release Date: April, 1989

Producer: Garth Fundis/Don Williams

Songwriter: Don Williams

Song Title: I've Been Loved By the Best

Album Title: One Good Well

Release Date: April, 1989

Producer: Garth Fundis/Don Williams

Songwriters: Bob McDill/Paul Harrison

Song Title: Broken Heartland

Album Title: One Good Well

Release Date: April, 1989

Producer: Garth Fundis/Don Williams

Songwriters: Gene Nelson/Paul Nelson

Song Title: Just As Long As I Have You

Album Title: One Good Well

Release Date: April, 1989

Producer: Garth Fundis/Don Williams

Songwriters: Dave Loggins/J.D. Martin

Song Title: Why Get Up

Album Title: One Good Well

Release Date: April, 1989

Producer: Garth Fundis/Don Williams

Songwriters:

Don Williams One Good Well April, 1989

Song Title: Maybe That's All It Takes
Album Title: One Good Well
Release Date: April, 1989
Producer: Garth Fundis/Don Williams
Songwriters: Beth Nielsen Chapman

Song Title: We're All The Way
Album Title: One Good Well
Release Date: April, 1989
Producer: Garth Fundis/Don Williams
Songwriters: Don Williams

Song Title: Flowers Won't Grow (In Gardens of Stone)
Album Title: One Good Well
Release Date: April, 1989
Producer: Garth Fundis/Don Williams
Songwriters: Bucky Jones/Bob McDill

Song Title: If You Love Me, Won't You Love Me
Album Title: One Good Well
Release Date: April, 1989
Producer: Garth Fundis/Don Williams
Songwriters: Bucky Jones/Bob McDill