

Don Williams I Turn the Page October, 1998

*Don Williams released I Turn the Page on Giant Records on October 27, 1998, marking the end of a five-year stint of indie label releases. I Turn the Page garnered the praise of critics, as the then 59-year old Williams seemed to fulfill a timely desire for authenticity in country music. Songs like "Cracker-Jack Diamond" ushered in an era of stripped-down storytelling, and Don Williams was the just the artist to lead us in.*
